OBITUARIES

Bowe is remembered as someone who liked to meet new people everyday

By PAIGE SCHECTOR Staff Writer

Englewood's Amanda T. Howe will always remember words that her father Eugene imparted on her. "You never win anything," she said. "You treat everybody the way you would want to be treated. Never hurt anyone intentionally. That was his philosophy."

As a result, Harold Eugene Bowe, will always be remembered for that trait. Bowe, of Boca Grande, died on Saturday, Dec. 5. He was 69 years old.

Bowe was born on July 17, 1923, in Happy, Texas. He moved to the area from there 50 years ago. He was a personal supervisor for Seaboard Airline Railroad for 42 years and a member of the Boca Grande United Methodist Church and Masonic Lodge #113 of Punta Gorda. He was a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II.

"He served in the Great United in Boca Grande," Howe said. "That's where he met my mom."

In addition to Howe, Bowe is survived by wife Louise of Boca Grande; daughters Anita L. Evers of Arcadia and Joy E. Bowe of Englewood; sons Harold Bowe of Englewood and Dale Bowe of Pan Charlotte; sisters Vania Panto of Abilene, Texas, and Eva Ann Pritchard of Round Mountain, Nev.; brothers E.L. Bowe of Nixon, Texas, C.P. Bowe of Delano, California, and Richard Bowe of Houston; and five grandchildren.

"Everyone loved him. He was very friendly to every-
